Dear Dr. Colocassides:

The National Career Development Association (NCDA) is pleased to partner with Ballsbridge University to provide the Facilitating Career Development (FCD) Training to your students worldwide. We commend your efforts in providing college credits to completers of this training and we appreciate your support as an FCD Instructor in making this opportunity possible.

The FCD competencies are the most recognized standards for those working in career development field. Your students will also become eligible to apply for the Certified Career Service Provider (CCSP) Credential through the NCDA Credentialing Commission upon completion of the training program.

NCDA is proud to support your efforts. Please let me know if you need additional assistance.

Sincerely,
